Following resolutions were unanimously approved during the meeting:

- 1.1 All the Deans of Faculties may be entrusted to process the draft syllabi of III to VIII Semesters FYUP and NEP synchronised PG syllabus of respective Departments under their jurisdiction. And submit the same to NEP Task Force for observations and inputs with regard to Course Structure vis-à-vis NEP-2020 and Mapping as per Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes.
- 1.2 Only after incorporation of inputs received from NEP Task Force regarding alignment/conformity of the syllabi as per Course Structure, Coding and Mapping under NEP-2020, the syllabi of different Departments are to be deliberated and to be finalised by respective Board of Studies (BoS) for their contents and context specific relevance.
- 1.3 The following Time Line (tentative) is may be adhered with in this regard:
 - i) Submission of Draft Syllabi (both UG and PG) to NEP Task Force by respective Deans of Faculties : 25th April, 2024
 - ii) Scrutiny of Course Structure vis-à-vis NEP-2020 and Mapping as per POs and COs followed by Communication to Department NEP Coordinators for desired Corrections : 01st May, 2024 to 09th May, 2024
 - iii) BoS Meetings of all the Departments to finalise their Syllabi of UG and PG Programmes under NEP-2020: 12th May, 2024 to 17th May, 2024
- 1.4 The UGC notification dated 01st March, 2024 with regard to provision of Bridge Courses, for transition of CBCS students to Four Year UG Programmes, it was discussed and unanimously agreed by the members that since RGU has sincerely adopted LOCF in most of its existing courses of UG since 2020-21, there will not be much difficulty for transition as NEP syllabi matches with those of LOCF in terms of contents and mapping.
However, in cases where it might be required respective Board of Studies will have the prerogative and authority to decide accordingly.
