

Health Camp cum Awareness Programme Organised at NSS Adopted Village

A health camp was organised on the eve of Guru Nanak Jayanti by the students of Department of Social work in the NSS adopted village of Lekha on 23rd November 2018. During the health camp awareness programme on women help line was also conducted. Dr. Swapan Majumdar, Dermatologist of TRIHMS, Naharlagun conducted check up for 23 children and 36 adult members of the village. Mr. Tana Tala former Gram Chairperson formally launched the programme and expressed gratitude for organising the health and awareness programme. Mr. Nabam Vijay Head Master and Nabam Yapi assistant Teacher coordinated and help in conduction of the programme. Meanwhile a weeklong swacchhta drive was also started in the University campus for the upcoming 16th Convocation.