

Arunachal Institute of Tribal Studies
& Centre for Endangered Languages
Rajiv Gandhi University
(2014-2018)

OUT REACH FIELDWORK, AWARENESS & DISSEMINATION PROGRAMMES

Capacity Building Programme on Cultural Resource Management
(9-12 Feb, 2015)

Arunachal Institute of Tribal Studies (AITS) , Rajiv Gandhi University, Itanagar in collaboration with Indira Gandhi National Centre for The Arts (IGNCA), New Delhi organized a four day Capacity Building Program on “Cultural Resource Management” in the mini auditorium of Rajiv Gandhi University, Itanagar from 9th to 12th February 2015. This programme is primarily meant for the MPhil and PhD research scholars from North East India. Apart from Rajiv Gandhi university, scholars from different universities i.e. North Eastern Hill University, Shillong, Tezpur University, Guwahati University, Sikkim University, Jharkhand Central University, Delhi University have participated in this programme. renowned resource persons with diverse expertise from different parts of the country like Prof. A.C.Bhagabati, Prof. Jawaharlal Handoo, Prof. Soumen Sen, Prof. Sreenathan, Prof. Dr. Shantanu Ganguly, film maker Bappa Ray have delivered several lectures and interacted with the participants during the programme.

Inauguration

Address by A.C. Bhagabati

Prof. Jawaharlal Handoo

Address by Prof. Tamo Mibang

THE PARTICIPANTS