

MEETING CUM WORKSHOP OF THE CFEL- NORTH EAST CLUSTER, TEZPUR UNIVERSITY, ASSAM

On 4th -6th April, 2016, the Centre for Endangered Languages, Rajiv Gandhi University, Rono Hills, Doimukh , Arunachal Pradesh attended the meeting cum workshop of the North East Cluster organised by Nodal Centre, Tezpur University, Assam. The meeting was attended by the Prof. Uday Narayan, National Coordinator, Centre for Endangered Languages, Visva Bharati, Shantiniketan along with the North East Cluster representing Tezpur University, Sikkim University and Rajiv Gandhi University, Arunachal Pradesh. The CFEL, RGU team did a presentation on the activities carried out since the inception of the Centre on Feb, 2016. An audio-visual presentation on field study conducted on Tangam and Khamba languages during Feb, 2016 was also presented before the members by CFEL, RGU. It was followed by feedback session from all the members of the North East cluster. During the course of two days various issues pertaining to Centre activities and fieldwork were discussed at length between the research team of various centers.

Presentation by CFEL, RGU