

WORKSHOP ON KASIK LANGUAGE DOCUMENTATION

A seven days workshop on Kasik language was successfully conducted by Centre for Endangered Languages, Rajiv Gandhi University from 20th-26th September, 2016 at Arunachal Institute of Tribal Studies, RGU. A team of ten Native Kasik speakers from Noksa village of Tirap district were invited to the university. The workshop mainly aimed at documenting the language and socio-cultural aspects of the Kasik people. The Coordinator of the workshop was Rebecca Borang, Senior Research Scholar, CFEL, RGU.

