ONE MONTH SUMMER INTERNSHIP AND SPECIAL CAMP AT LEKHI VILLAGE (NSS CELL ADOPTED VILLAGE)

The Rajiv Gandhi University (RGU) national service scheme (NSS) unit organised a special camp at the adopted villages of Lekha and Tumru from July 10 to 17. During the one-week stay at the village, the NSS volunteers conducted several community services besides taking up activities under Swachh Bharat internship programme. The NSS volunteers conducted village and household survey of the twin villages, organised gram panchayat meeting, and identified critical issues, which needed immediate interventions. Accordingly, based on the need assessment, the NSS volunteers along with village community of Lekha took up the issue of water scarcity faced by the villagers, improved the intake point thereby reviving the abandoned water collection infrastructure, and cleaned the sedimentation tank. The NSS volunteers also improved the dilapidated school building at Lekha. Besides, the NSS volunteers cleared the school compound of Tumru village which is slated to start its first batch from the current academic session. The NSS volunteers also organised swachhta rally and performed nukkad-natak (street-play) on various themes like the harmful impact of using pesticides and weedicides, alcoholism, gambling, swachhtha and environment conservation.
