WORD FROM THE DESK OF THE VICE CHANCELLOR

The Motto of National Service Scheme (NSS) “Not Me, But You“, reflects the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for self-less service NSS helps the students develop appreciation to others point of view and also show consideration to other living beings. It gives me pleasure to learn that the NSS Cell Rajiv Gandhi University (RGU) is publishing its Annual Report 2018-2019. I congratulate the Programme Officers and volunteers for their dedication and achievement. It is a matter of pride for all of us that our NSS volunteers have received best volunteer awards in the state and also at national level. It is certainly a true pleasure to share that on account of the diligence and committed engagement by students, staff and faculty members associated, the NSS Cell of university has been continuously engaged in connecting with the concerns of community. I congratulate the NSS cell of university for upholding the cardinal principle of NSS through their pro-active and continuous engagements in the tasks of nation building.

I wish to congratulate Ms. Gami Bogo conferred with the NSS award by the Hon'ble President of India Shri Ram Nath Kovind at Rashtrapati Bhavan, New Delhi and Ms. Binde Maying, bestowed with the Best NSS Volunteer Award at the 19th Conference of Higher Technical Education at Itanagar by Hon'ble Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Brig. (Retd.) Dr. B.D. Mishra and Hon'ble Home Minister, GOAP, Shri Honchun Ngamdang.

I take this opportunity to reiterate that the true spirit of NSS lies in vision of Mahatma Gandhi that the best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others. I wish the NSS Cell and the volunteers keep their spirit and contagious energy of selfless service always on a rise and thereby keep contributing their bit in the development of University and the Nation being very much in sync with the culture and spirit of the Land of Rising Sun.
