Programme Objectives for Bachelor's Degree Programme in English Literature (Honours)
(Adapted from The objectives of the LOCF in English)

The Honours programme in any subject is, in effect, a bridge between secondary and tertiary level education and postgraduate education. So it is important to make the courses in this programme as inclusive and broad as possible even as they also carry the imprints of specialized programmes of study. Honours courses are specialised and remain within the boundaries of accepted and current knowledge. The importance of student research is an integral part of any Honours Programme, particularly the English Honours programme.

The objectives of the LOCF in English, therefore, revisit traditional expectations of teaching and learning English by centre-staging outcomes that are demonstrable through five key attributes: understanding, use, communication, expansion, and application of subject knowledge with a clear awareness and understanding of one's location in the immediate and global environment.

In order to maximize the advantages of LOCF, the objectives are synced to outcomes. So the LOCF document highlights (i) the basic philosophy of teaching English as an Honours subject; (ii) the core objectives of English (Literary Studies and Language through Literature) by way of imparting subject knowledge, life skills, awareness of human values, respect for different locations and life forms, and professional skills; (iii) translation of each skill into demonstrable outcomes in terms of basic and critical communication, social engagement, personal growth and ability enhancement; (iv) application and use of domain knowledge as a bridge to society and the world at large; (v) demonstration of professional awareness and problem solving skills; (vi) demonstration of basic knowledge of digital knowledge platforms; (vi) ability to recognize the professional and social utility of the subject; and (vi) in the process understand, appreciate and imbibe values of life.

The broad objectives of the Learning Outcomes-based Curriculum Framework (LOCF) in English Literature (Honours) can therefore be outlined through the following points:

Prospects of the Curriculum: Formulating graduate attributes, qualification descriptors, programme learning outcomes and course learning outcomes that are expected to be demonstrated by the holder of a degree student with Honours in English;

Core Values: Enabling prospective students, parents, employers and others to understand the nature and level of learning outcomes (knowledge, skills, attitudes and human and literary values) or attributes for English Literature (Honours);

Bridge to the World: Providing a framework to see the subject as a bridge to the world in such a way that while recognizing the different conditions in pluralistic society, the students also are aware of a core of shared values such as (i) a commitment to the knowledge to understand the world and how to make a contribution to it; (ii) development of each person's unique potential; (iii) respect for others and their rights; (iv) social and civic responsibility, participation in democratic processes; social justice and cultural diversity; and (v) concern for the natural and cultural environment;

Assimilation of Ability, Balance, harmony and Inclusiveness: Identifying and defining such aspects or attributes of English Literature (Honours) that a graduate of the subject should be able to demonstrate on successful completion of the programme of study;

Frame for National Standards: Providing a frame of reference for maintaining national standards with international compatibility of learning outcomes of English Literature (Honours) and academic standards to ensure global competitiveness, and to facilitate student/graduate mobility;

Pliability: Formulating outcomes that are responsive to social and technological changes in order that the pedagogy will meet student's needs arising from the changes. LOCF encourages effective use of new technologies as tools for learning and provide a balance between what is common to the education of all students and the kind of flexibility and openness required for education;

Pedagogy: Providing higher education institutions an important point of reference for designing teaching-learning strategies, assessing student learning levels, and periodic review of programmes and academic standards for English Literature (Honours) with shift from domain knowledge to processes of realising the outcomes;

Development: Providing HEIs a developmental approach through LOCF that would accommodate social needs and provide students a clear direction of learning.

The specific objectives of the BA programme in English Literature (Honours) are to develop in the student the ability to demonstrable the following outcomes:

1. Disciplinary Knowledge of English Literature and Literary Studies
2. Communication Skills

Course Level Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course students will be able to:

- recognize creativity in writing and discern the difference between academic/non creative and creative writing
- develop a thorough knowledge of different aspects of language such as figures of speech, language codes and language registers so that they can both, identify as well as use these; in other words, they must learn that creative writing is as much a craft as an art
- develop a comprehensive understanding of some specific genres such as fiction, poetry, drama and newspaper writing
- distinguish between these as well as look at the sub divisions within each genre (such as in poetry, different forms like sonnets, ballads, haiku, ghazal, etc)
- process their writing for publication and so must have the ability to edit and proofread writing such that it is ready to get into print.

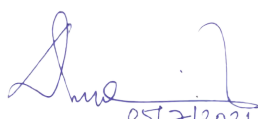

Scheme of Examination:

- Emphasis being on the formative assessment and CCCE, there would be two Sessional Tests and one Assignment held. Average of Marks scored in the Best of the two of the above will be taken towards Score in the Internal exam. The same would be added to the total score in the final examination. The Sessional Test will be held for 20 marks. The Assignment will also carry 20 marks.
- The final examination will be held for 80 marks.
- Thus, the Paper will be examined for a total of 20+80 =100 Marks.
