Addressing the gathering in the webinar, he appreciated Department of Education in completing about 10 webinars in this COVID-19 pandemic situation. He made talk on quality of Education, quality teachers and quality training. If these three are focused as important parameters, holistic development of the individual is possible.

Prof. Saket Kushwaha, Honorable Vice-Chancellor of Rajiv Gandhi University

Honorable Vice-Chancellor of Rajiv Gandhi University, Prof. Saket Kushwaha greeted all the participants. Emphasizing on Early Childhood Care Education, Prof. Saket Kushwaha has stressed that recruitment of Anganawadi teachers should be done based on merit and proper qualifications. Subsequently, it is needed to increase salaries of Anganawadi teachers to function effectively. It is needed to use the productive skills of youth for the prosperity and development of the nation. This could be possible by providing quality education. Most of the young learners could not get seats at +2 level due to lack of opportunities in educational domains. This might be the one of the reasons for unemployment in the country. He also emphasizes that there will be tremendous radical reforms in school education in the light of NEP-2020 with regard to curriculum, pedagogy, assessment, multilingualism, Standard Setting and Accreditation in School Education, school complexes/clusters with Bal Bhavans, Samajik Chetna Kendras, short term and long term development plans, Sharing Resources and Pairing of schools, integration of vocational education at all levels, physical and mental health and wellbeing, supporting children with special needs and children with special talents, bridging gender and social gaps, Setting up National Centres for Performance Assessment, Review and Analysis Knowledge for Holistic Development (PARAKH) and other transformative initiatives in school education. He also adda that innovative pedagogy needs to be incorporated through experiential learning, integrated pedagogy, peer tutoring, equal weightage in curricular and co-curricular areas, bagless days, use and integration of technology. This inaugural session was moderated by Dr. Nisanth PM, Dept. of Education RGU.

Technical Session -1

Prof. Mazhar Asif, Dean, Center for Persian and Central Asian Studies, JNU, Member NEP 2020

Technical sessions were started at 11.00am. In technical session-1, Prof. Mazhar Asif, Member NEP 2020, Dean, Center for Persian and Central Asian Studies, Literature and Culture Studies, JNU, New Delhi, spoke about significance of language studies in School Education. He has added that tribal community of Arunachal Pradesh was reflected in Kalika Purana and Mahabharata. Emphasizing the importance of languages, he stated that mother tongue would provide personal identity. It could connect different culture as well as it could promote cognitive abilities among language learners. If learners are good at mother tongue, they will learn other languages easily. Education in mother tongue will strengthen socio-emotional and communication skills. Medium of instruction should be in mother tongue at least up to Grade 8 and beyond if possible. This first technical session was moderated by Prof. P.K. Acharya Dept. of Education, RGU.

2.3 Technical Session-2

Dr. Vijay Kumar. R, Regional Director, ERC-NCTE, Bhubaneswar

In technical session-2, Dr. Vijay Kumar. R, Regional Director, ERC-NCTE, Bhubaneswar, Odisha, spoke on NEP-2020: Reforms in Teacher Preparation. He has added that Education is fundamental for full human potential and social development. Teacher Education should move towards less content, and move towards learning about how to think critically, how to solve problems logically, how to be creative, how to be innovative, and how to adapt new materials in changing fields. Content and pedagogy should go hand in hand. Teacher education should be experiential, holistic, integrated, inquiry based, discussion oriented, flexible and enjoyable. Teachers should be grounded with Indian values. Teacher Education programmes might be strengthened in multidisciplinary Universities and colleges. This second technical session was moderated by Prof. J. Sahoo, Dept. of Education, RGU.

2.4 Technical Session-3

Prof. Arbind Kumar Jha, Head and Dean, Faculty of Education, B.R. Ambedkar University, Lucknow

In technical session-3, Prof. Arbind Kumar Jha, Head and Dean, Faculty of Education, B.R. Ambedkar University, Lucknow spoke on NEP-2020: Curriculum and Assessment at School Level. Prof. A. K Jha has stated that pedagogy must be enjoyable and experimental for achieving all round development of the learners. Out of the many focal areas of NEP 2020, he spoke in detail on assessment techniques.

Illustrating the significance of assessment reflected in NEP 2020, he stressed upon regular formative assessment. This regular formative assessment would be the assessment for learning rather assessing students for certifying under pass/fail category. He further added that learning could not be measured in absolute manner. Thus assessment is an apt word in place of marking system or grading system of evaluation. The nature of assessment should be assessment for learning, and assessment as learning. He also added that cognitive capacities as well as motives of the learners were equally important. This third technical session was moderated by Prof. T. Lhungdim, Dept. of Education, RGU.

2.5 Technical Session-4

In technical session-4, Prof. Ramachandran, Senior Advisor, UIC, NIEPA, New Delhi, had given overall impression on transformative initiatives in School Education. He has explored that holistic development means strengthening the all capacities of individual. These capacities could be promoted through Multidisciplinary approach. 85% of brain development will be occurred before the age of 6 years. Thus, it is needed to implement Early Childhood Care Education from age of 3-6 years. He has illustrated that, according to State Achievement Survey and National Achievement Survey, the achievement of the learners is below 50% due to lack of Early Childhood Care Education. The achievement of foundational literacy and numeracy could be achieved through mission mode. Vocational Education should be the integral part of School Education and it should prepare for future of work in order to face the challenges of industry. This fourth technical session was moderated by Prof. E. Hangsing, Dept. of Education, RGU.
