RGU, first dual-mode university to conduct Capacity Building Training for Teachers

'Rajiv Gandhi University (RGU) is the first dual-mode university from across the nations to initiate Capacity Building Training program for teachers' shared Prof. Madhu Parhar, Director, Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia (CEMCA). She was speaking at the Valedictory session of a three day online program 'Online Capacity Building of Teaching Staff on Development of Online Courses' organized by Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia (CEMCA) in collaboration with Rajiv Gandhi University, Arunachal Pradesh, from 6th to 8th July 2020.

Prof. Saket Kushwaha, Vice Chancellor, of Rajiv Gandhi University in his valedictory lecture said 'Online Learning has become the need of the hour and RGU is committed to take all necessary step to adapt to the new normal'. He also suggested that RGU and CEMCA should jointly start relevant courses to facilitate the new methodologies of Teaching-Learning. Prof. Ashan Riddi, Director, IDE, RGU and Dr. Manas Ranjan Parhi, SPO, CEMCA also spoke on the occasion.

The training program, open to teachers to gain training in online teaching methods was specially curated for teachers from the North Eastern Region of the nation. It had 317 applicants from which 100 were selected following selection criteria. The 100 participants were given intensive synchronized and asynchronized training with assignments and tasks. Dr. Nisha Singh, Centre for Online Education, IGNOU was the resource person for the 3-day training. Moyir Riba, faculty at IDE, RGU was the coordinator of the program.

Commonwealth of Learning (COL) established Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia (CEMCA) in the year 1994. CEMCA serves as the regional unit of the Commonwealth of Learning, Vancouver, Canada. CEMCA promotes the meaningful, relevant and appropriate use of media and technology to serve the educational and training needs of Commonwealth member states of Asia.

RGU first dual-mode university to conduct capacity building training for teachers

July 9, 2020

RONO HILLS, Jul 8: "Rajiv Gandhi University (RGU) is the first dual-mode university from across the nations to initiate capacity building training program for teachers," said Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia (CEMCA) Director Prof Madhu Parhar. She was speaking at the valedictory session of a three-day online programme: 'Online capacity building of teaching staff on development of online courses', organized by the CEMCA in collaboration with RGU from 6 to 8 July. RGU Vice Chancellor Prof Saket Kushwaha said, "Online learning has become the need of the hour and the RGU is committed to take all necessary steps to adapt to the new normal."
