- (f) All these joint endeavors by the RGU and RGNIYD will benefit both the organizations and the youth at large in the north east region of India.

II. RESPONSIBILITIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES:

- (a) It is the desire and the wish of the aforementioned Parties to this MoU that this document should not and thus shall not establish nor create any form or manner of a formal agreement or indenture, but rather an agreement between the Parties to work together in such a manner that would promote a genuine atmosphere of collaboration and alliance in the support of an effective and efficient partnership and leadership meant to maintain, safeguard and sustain sound and optimal managerial, financial and administrative commitment with regards to all matters related to this MoU;
- (b) For the purposes of this MOU, the Agreement and the Activities, the core values of higher education including (i) equitable access, (ii) academic freedom, (iii) institutional autonomy, (iv) institutional accountability, and (v) professional and social responsibility shall be appositely reserved and maintained;
- (c) The Institutions shall agree on the importance of the core values to the success and quality of the activities, and pledge to make all reasonable efforts to uphold them within the context of the activities and the agreement with respect to setting their own institutional academic priorities with regard to the activities, without internal or external pressure or interference; and
- (d) The institutions shall remind themselves and all participants in the activities of their professional and social responsibilities, including that they should make clear when they act in an institutional, professional or personal capacity, and when acting in an institutional or professional capacity, that they shall be mindful of conduct which shall undermine, in fact or perception, the core values and the success and quality of the activities.
- (e) The Centre for Youth Development and Leadership Studies (CYDLS) of RGU will play the role of a facilitator in implementing the programs and activities of RGNIYD & Vice-Versa.

III. FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

- (a) Both the parties understand that all financial arrangements between the Parties have to be further negotiated and mutually agreed, and shall depend on the availability of funds. Both parties may seek financing of joint activities from internal and external sources available to them.
- (b) Both the parties shall try to seek external funding sources to facilitate these exchanges.
- (c) The two parties shall acknowledge that in the absence of an external funding agency, all expenses for travel, living and allied costs of cooperation and exchange activities shall be left to the discretion and the responsibility under "the mutually discussed and agreed upon agreement" for each specific cooperation and activities.

IV. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

- (a) The protection of intellectual property rights shall be in conformity with the national laws, rules and regulations.

1. Notwithstanding anything in the paragraphs above, intellectual property rights in respect of any technological development and any products and services development carried out:
 - i. Jointly by the both parties or research obtained through the joint activity effort by the parties, shall be jointly owned by the parties in accordance with the terms to be mutually agreed upon, and
 - ii. Solely and separately by the party or the research results obtained through the sole and separate effort of the party, shall be solely owned by the party concerned,
 2. The terms and conditions in the execution of the research project shall be decided on case-to-case basis.
 3. The treatment of intellectual property rights developed through collaborations under this MoU shall be determined between the parties through mutual consultation and separate written agreements on a case-by-case basis.
- (b) Sharing of any confidential or proprietary information shall be restricted in any collaboration under this MOU. If either Party wishes to disclose information it considers to be confidential or proprietary to the other Party, the Parties shall enter into a written non-disclosure agreement.

V. TERMS OF IMPLEMENTATION, RENEWAL, REVISION, CANCELLATION & NOTICES

- (a) This MOU shall become effective from the date of the last signature and remains in force for a period of five years.
- (b) Details of the implementation of any particular exchange resulting from this MoU shall be negotiated between the two parties.
- (c) This MoU becomes effective on the day it is signed and remains valid till any party cancel the MoU by notifying the other party of its intent to do so at least six months in advance of its withdrawal. Projects in progress at the time of termination shall remain unaffected.
- (d) Any amendment or modification to the present text shall be submitted for review to the competent authorities, and shall not binding unless reduced to writing and signed by both the parties.
- (e) Any dispute arising out of this MOU and the activities mentioned in it is subject to the jurisdiction of mutually agreed legal agency.
