Acknowledgements

At the very outset, we would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to Hon'ble Vice-chancellor, Prof. Saket Kushwaha for his constant encouragement to conduct such type of career development programme for the students. Further we are grateful to him for providing necessary funds to conduct this workshop.

We extend our deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Amitava Mitra, Pro Vice-chancellor for gracing the programme as a Guest of Honour.

We would like to extend our gratefulness to both the resource persons, Mr. Asit Das, from BCPL, Dibrugarh and Dr. Raza Hamid from KSG, New Delhi for accepting our request and for coming here long way from Dibrugarh and Delhi for the benefit of our students.

We are thankful to our nearby institute especially NERIST Nirjuli, Government College Doimukh and NITAP, Yupia for sending their students of around 30 each to attend this programme.

We are also thankful to all the student participants from different departments of our university with overwhelming response and participation in the programme.

Finally, we would like to extend our sincere thanks to each and everyone who were directly or indirectly involved in making the workshop a grand success.

Part 1: Preface

1.1. Background

A placement activity in the university has been doing in departmental level since long back. The centralize cell, called Placement Cell was created last year in the month of February under the leadership of our Hon'ble Vice-chancellor Prof. Saket Kushwaha and its operation was started recently in the month of September 2019. However, the existence of placement cell and its activity was not popular among the students. Hence, to create awareness about the existence and its facilities for campus placement of the students, this programme was conceived. Moreover, in view of the recent advertisement issued by the APPSC for different administrative posts and also other competitive examinations, the counseling for preparation of such examinations was necessary. Hence, the programme was initiated under Career Counseling Cell.

1.2. Objectives

The main objectives of the workshop were:

1. To spread awareness among students about the existence of placement cell and also inform about campus placement activities.
2. To give counseling regarding civil services and its related aspects.

1.3. Themes

The major theme of the one day workshop was:

1. Campus Placement
2. Career Counseling for Civil Services

1.4. Resource Persons

1. The 1st Resource Person was Mr. Asit Das, presently serving as a General Manager (HR) in BCPL (Brahmaputra Cracker and Polymer Ltd.) located at Dibrugarh, Assam, which is a subsidiary company of GAIL (Gas Authority of India Ltd.). He is HR expert. Mr. Das has 25 years of experience in Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations. He has vast experience in recruitment of human resource for the companies.
2. The 2nd Resource Person was Dr. Raza Hamid, senior consultant, constitutional expert and motivational speaker, who has been guiding and counseling civil service aspirants for more than decades. He is associated with Khan Study Group (KSG), New Delhi, which is one of the leading institutes in India in teaching and guiding the civil service (IAS) aspirants since long back.

1.5. About the Sponsoring Agency

The entire workshop was funded by Rajiv Gandhi University, Rono Hills, Doimukh.

1.6. Budget

The budget of the workshop was Rs 1,21,000.

Part 2: Session Wise Details

2.1. Inaugural Session

The programme was started with inaugural session from 10.30 am with the welcome speech delivered by Prof. Tasi Kaye, Programme Director and Professor-in-Charge, Placement Cell who had appraised the main purpose of the programme which was followed by felicitations to chief guest, guest of honour and resource persons. The programme was attended by around 500 students.

Prof. Saket Kushwaha, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, RGU was the Chief Guest of the programme. He addressed the august gathering by emphasizing the importance of placement activities and career counseling centers in the university. He urged upon the university community to make the university number one in producing quality students to enable them to get good placements and to be absorbed in the job market. He also released the placement bulletin for the year 2019-20 published by the placement cell, RGU. He also emphasized on organizing such workshops in every quarter of the year henceforth. The vice chancellor also said that the university is aware of the pain of the students who don't know the track where they are supposed to go after completion of their respective degrees and their way forwards, and suggested the students to do SWOT (Strength, weakness, opportunity and threat) analysis, so that they can know their weaknesses and can work on it.

Earlier in his address Prof. Amitava Mitra, Pro Vice-Chancellor and Guest of Honour highlighted the background of the establishment of placement cell in RGU and informed about the role played by each and every department of the university.

Inaugural session was concluded with vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Boa Reena Tok, Programme Coordinator and Coordinator of Career Counseling Cell, RGU.

2.2. First Technical Sessions

Mr. Asit Das, General Manager (HR) BCPL, Dibrugarh addressed participants on the topic 'campus placement'. He emphasized on the importance of entrepreneurship. He said that looking for only job will not going to help students in pushing the Indian economy. He suggested the participants that after the completion of respective degrees one should must not search job only but they should try to create jobs for others. He gave instances of different job portal such as naukri.com and stressed on other businesses such as apollo tyre, OYO, etc. Further, he stressed on the process of campus placements conducted by P.S.U's and central funded companies. He also discussed the important aspects like- Group Discussion in recruitment procedure and attitude of the aspirants towards interviews. At the end of the session participants raised different queries to clear their doubts regarding campus placement. Mr. Das made a sound interaction with participants and cleared all the doubts of the participants.

2.3. Second Technical Sessions

Dr. Raza Hamid, senior consultant from KSG Institute, Delhi delivered on 'preparation for civil services' and motivated the students to focus more on civil service preparation during the second technical session of the workshop. He also dwelt on the role of coaching institutes towards moulding the aspirants' mindset to go for civil services. He shared his experience of civil services coaching. He further explained the value of civil service examinations in India. He pointed out 26 types of civil services such as IAS, IPS, IFS, IRS, etc. He shared some tips with participants regarding - What to do study? How much to study? From where to study?

He also discussed about the fact and number of UPSC aspirants is growing every year. He suggested some do's and don'ts to the participants which are very important while preparing for civil service examinations. At the end, he interacted with students regarding the civil services and related aspects. He cleared most of the doubts of the participants by taking their queries.

2.4. Valedictory Session

The session was chaired by Prof. Tasi Kaye, Programme Director, Dr. Boa Reena Tok, Programme Coordinator, Dr. Raza Hamid, Resource Person and Dr. Ashok Sharma, Assistant Coordinator. The certificate and placement bulletin were distributed to the participants by Prof. Kaye and Dr. Hamid.

The programme was formally concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Ashok Sharma the Assistant coordinator and placement officer.

Part 3: Outcome of the Programme

3.1. Immediate Implications in the context of Knowledge

- i. General awareness of the existence of placement cell among the students.
- ii. Knowledge about various placement opportunities available to the students.
- iii. Knowledge about the tips for preparation of civil services among the candidates.
- iv. Created interest among interest about the importance of being civil servants.

3.2. Policy Implications

- i. The programme highlighted the need to create permanent coaching centers for NET and UPSC in the RGU campus for the benefit of the students, which might be considered.

3.3. Other Implications (if any)

- i. The participants would give due importance on the preparation for appearing for Group Discussion and Interview.
- ii. Participants would make proper planning for every activity related to their career development.
- iii. Participants would devote time for preparing for civil service examinations.

RGU conducts 'campus placement and career counselling for civil services' workshop

RÖNO HILLS, Mar 2: A one day workshop on 'Campus placement and career counselling for civil services' was organized at the Rajiv Gandhi University (RGU) campus jointly by the placement cell and career counselling cell of the RGU on Monday to create awareness about campus placement and provide career counselling for civil service aspirants among the varsity students.

Around 570 students participated in the programme, including students from the NERIST, NIT'Yupia and Government College Doimukh.

Inaugurating the programme, RGU Vice-Chancellor Prof Saket Kushwaha emphasized on the importance of placement activities and career counselling centres in the university. He urged upon the university community to make the university number one in producing quality students to enable them to get good placements and to be absorbed in the job market.

He also released the placement bulletin for the year 2019-20 published by the placement cell, RGU. He also emphasized on organizing such workshops in every quarter of the year henceforth.

The vice chancellor also said that the university is aware of the pain of the students who don't know the track where they are supposed to go after completion of their respective degrees and what are their way forwards, and suggested the students to do SWOT (Strength, weakness, opportunity, and threat) analysis, so that they can know their weaknesses and can work on it.

He assured to make the university's civil service and NET coaching programmes more visible in coming days.

RGU Pro Vice-Chancellor Prof Amitava Mitra highlighted the background of the establishment of placement cell in RGU and informed about the role played by each and every department of the university. Earlier Programme Director and Placement Cell Professor-in-Charge, Prof Tasi Kaye appraised on the main purpose of the programme.

Resource person Brahma Putra Cracker and Polymer Limited (BCPL), Dibrugarh General Manager (HR), Asit Das delivered a lecture on importance of campus placement and how to build up a better personality. He discussed about how companies are turning towards higher education institution to tap best human resources.

Senior Consultant of Khan Study Group (KSG) institute for IAS coaching, New Delhi, Dr Raza Hamid motivated the students to focus more on civil service preparation during the second technical session of the workshop. He also dwelt on the role of coaching institutes towards moulding the aspirants' mindset to go for civil services.

The placement officer of the university and assistant coordinator of the workshop, Dr Ashok Sharma also gave his inputs.
