1. The committee granted approval to run certificate course in Non-Formal Sanskrit language learning in collaboration with Central Sanskrit University, New Delhi.
2. The committee of also gave its approval to open a new study centre at Central Jail, Jollang, Itanagar, Arunachal Pradesh. This centre has been established with the motive to provide education to jail inmates only. The committee discussed that this can be included as one of the best practices of the Institute.
3. The committee decided that all the Study Centres shall maintain the required data as per the format of Centre for Internal Quality Assurance (CIQA) cell provided by the Headquarter and submit the same in every quarter.
4. The committee also suggested that social media and physical mode of campaign must be carried out by the institute to reach out to maximum number of learners possible.

To conclude the Member Secretary of the Cell, thanked all the members for the fruitful discussions and the positive decision that were made as an outcome of the meeting.
