NO PLAGIARISM: A major ethical standard in research focuses on appropriately recognizing and crediting the work of others' who have contributed to the body of knowledge in a given area. Plagiarism is simply using someone else's ideas or wording without giving due credit / citation. When you present an idea in your dissertation / project report that originated from another source (written or spoken), even if you modified the wording or parts of the idea, credit to the original source should be given. The project report is a scholarly work, and as such, extensive citation from the literature is expected. As you make notes from a source, indicate clearly whether your notes are a direct quote or a paraphrased interpretation. If direct quotes are used, the page number is required for a complete citation. Plagiarism software is widely available and routinely used by professors and journal editors.
