India, revised time to time with the approval of the competent authority as well as market value and demand or (ii) for any other reasons as deemed fit.

ACCEPTANCE OF ALLOTMENT:

The Licensee shall communicate the acceptance of the allotment made to him or her within 10 working days from the receipt of order of allotment. On acceptance, he/she shall occupy the premises after depositing the Security deposit amounting to Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand only), Agreement and the Inventory of the building signed by both parties within 15 days from the date of acceptance unless the premises are certified to be uninhabitable by the University administration.

COMMENCEMENT OF ALLOTMENT:

For the purpose of liability for payment of license fee and other charges, an allotment made under these rules shall, unless or otherwise provided in the terms of allotment in a particular case, take effect from the date of occupation as mentioned in the allotment letter.

SUBSISTENCE OF ALLOTMENT:

The allotment made under these Rules, shall subsist until: -

1. It is surrendered according to the provisions of these rules or
2. It is replaced by another allotment or
3. It is vacated by the licensee or
4. If it is cancelled or deemed to have been cancelled under the orders of the competent authority or
5. If a licensee is found to be unable to run the shop or
6. If he/she leaves in between or
7. If the allotment is cancelled for any other reason(s) the security deposit will be forfeited.

STATUTORY OBLIGATIONS:

The firm shall be directly responsible for payment of wages including other benefits such as EPF, ESIC, etc., to his manpower engaged at his own cost.

MAINTENANCE OF SHOPS:

1. The licensee, shall maintain the shop to the satisfaction of the University or any other official nominated by the Competent Authority to ensure proper maintenance of the shop.
2. The licensee shall allow the maintenance staff authorized by the University to have access to the premises at all reasonable hours for inspection.
3. A licensee or his/her staff shall not grow any trees, shrubs or plants contrary to the instructions issued by the University nor cut or chop off any existing trees or shrubs growing in any garden, courtyard or compound attached to the shops except with the prior written permission of the appropriate authority.

4. A licensee shall ensure that he/she and his/her staff do not cause any inconvenience to their neighbors by their conduct.
5. The firm/licensee shall maintain all statutory registers under the applicable law and shall produce the same, on demand, to the concerned authority of RGU, Doimukh or any other authority under law.

RESTRICTED MATERIALS:

1. No inflammable material shall be stored in the shops. Cigarette, Tobacco, Liquor, Narcotics, Fire arms, Ammunition, etc. are in the list of prohibited items.
2. Shop shall not provide plastic carry bags to the customers. Use of plastic cups, plates, etc. is also strictly prohibited.

DAMAGES / THEFTS:

A licensee shall be personally responsible for any damage beyond normal wear and tear of the fixtures, civil fittings, electrical installations, fencing etc., provided in the shop or theft of any of these items during the period of his/her occupation of the shop. The licensee has to furnish complete present and permanent residential addresses of his/her staff with their photographs to the University Administration, along with the Police Verification Certificate. University will not be responsible for that whatsoever.

LIABILITY OF LICENSEE FEE:

1. When an allotment has been accepted, the liability for payment of license fee and other charges will be with effect from the date as mentioned in the allotment letter.
2. Subject to the provisions of these rules, if a licensee fails to take possession of the allotted shop within the prescribed time limit, will lead to forfeiture of Earnest Money Deposit.

OVERSTAY IN SHOPS AFTER CANCELLATION OF ALLOTMENT:

When an allotment has been cancelled or is deemed to have been cancelled under the provisions of these Rules and the licensee concerned has not vacated it within the prescribed time-limit, he/she shall be liable, in addition to any other action, to pay damages for un-authorized occupation and use of the premises, which may amount up to Rs.5000/- per day for a period upto one month, beyond which electrical and water services will be disconnected, along with forfeiture of the Security Deposit. If necessary, the University may evict the defaulter with the help of the appropriate local law enforcement authority. Such a licensee will be debarred from any further allotment process.

LICENSE:

In every case, the licensee shall be strictly deemed to be a Licensee but not a tenant.

TO A LEGAL HEIR:

1. It is made clear that in the event of revocation of license for any reason whatsoever, including death of the licensee, the heirs/representatives of the licensee shall have no locus stand to continue in occupation of the licensed premises and they are liable to vacate/be evicted forthwith.

2. However, on the death of an licensee the shop may be regularized in the name of any one of his/her legal heir, if and only if approved by University Administration, RGU, Doimukh provided an affidavit is given by each of the remaining legal heirs of the deceased licensee to the effect that they have no objection to such allotment/regularization and the legal heir submits all documents including registration, etc., within 3 months.
3. The regularization of allotment in the name of legal heirs on the death of the licensee will be made on the same license fee which the deceased licensee was actually paying or was liable to pay for the premises immediately before his/her death.

RESTRICTION OF TRADES:

When a shop is allotted for a specific trade viz., grocery, stationery etc. the licensee will strictly not be allowed to change the trade. The licensee must not indulge in 'unfair trade practices' as per the existing rules of the Government.

CHANGE OF PURPOSE OF SHOP:

If university Authority feels that a specific kind of service is needed, the same must be provided by the licensee at reasonable cost, maintaining the quality.

INTERPRETATION AND RESIDUAL MATTERS:

On any question of interpretation of these Rules, the University Administration decision shall be final. The matters, or points in relation to which no specific provision exists in these rules, will be governed by the provisions of relevant Rules of Government of India.

TERMINATION / EVICTION:

1. The decision of competent authority, RGU, Doimukh in regard to interpretation of the terms and conditions shall be final and binding and shall not be called in question in any proceedings before any court or forum.
2. RGU, Doimukh reserves the right to issue show cause/ termination notice to the licensee by giving one month period on violation of any of the Terms and Conditions. Further, on expiry of one month, two more notices can be served giving each 15 days beyond which the agreement will stand terminated automatically unless the firm has fulfilled and complied with all obligations within the said period. During the notice period of termination of contract, the agency shall keep discharging duties as before till the expiry of notice period.
3. The university rules shall be binding for execution of the contract. Further, in case of any dispute arising out of or in connection with the aforesaid contract, either during subsistence of the contract or thereafter, the same will be settled by mutual consultation and in case of failure, dispute/s shall be referred to University Administration, RGU, Doimukh i.e. Registrar or any other person appointed by the Vice-Chancellor of the university. If any aggrieved by the decision of the university administration they can approach the appropriate forum.
4. It shall be the duty of the licensee to remove all the persons and/or resources deployed by him/her on termination of the contract on any ground whatsoever and to ensure that no person creates any disruption/hindrance/problem of any nature to RGU, Doimukh failing which necessary forces may be deployed to evict during which loss if any is the sole responsibility of the firm.

MISCELLANEOUS:

1. The university reserves the right to inspect/check the quality and selling rates of all items through the Quality Control Committee. Any excess charging from customers or if the items being sold are found to be of poor quality or unhygienic or the cases falling within the definition of misconduct with customers will tantamount to breach of contract agreement.
2. The licensor shall be represented by the Director and/or such person or persons, Officer or Officers as may be decided or authorized by University Administration from time to time.
3. The shop will display the price of all items sold in the shop, not having printed MRP. The facility will be available for all days.
4. Time to time the performance of shops will be evaluated based on the feedback reports taken from students/ staff/ faculty/residents of the University in terms of rate, quality, hygiene, cleanliness, and availability of items, conduct of licensee and its staff. The overall performance will be assessed by University Authority.

The Vice-Chancellor of the University may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, modify all or any of the provisions of the rules/instructions governing the policy of allotment, regularization, restoration of shops etc., in the University.
